Garstang
Best Western Garstang Country Hotel & Golf Club

Situated in the small picturesque market town of Garstang, North Lancashire. Our purpose built modern 32 bed roomed family owned hotel is sited on the banks of the river Wyre and boasts open views of the Lancashire countryside beyond our own 18 hole parkland golf course.

The Hotel is ideally located within a short distance of all the North West has to offer, such as Blackpool, Lancaster, Preston, The English Lake District and The Bowland Fells AONB.

All our accommodation is en-suite, airy and spacious and each share views of our beautiful gardens, the golf course and the open landscape beyond.

From our full English breakfast to the full dining experience in the Kingfisher restaurant we offer a range of Dining and Golf packages, for the latest prices refer to our online booking facility or call our reception team.

Conferences and Banqueting

We offer conference and banqueting facilities which can cater for 2 to 250 of your invited guests or delegates. All of our 7 unique function rooms have natural daylight flooding in and can be set to your specific needs be it regional meetings, training sessions, exhibitions or banquets and celebrations.

Our central location can offer access to most of Lancashire within 1 hour of our hotel and its 172 free car parking spaces ensure convenience for all.

From our freshly prepared locally sourced food through to our rich roast filter coffee we provide quality and attentive service which is why we remain one of Lancashire's most popular venues.

Directions

The village of Garstang is situated on the B6430 which is just off the A6 half way between Junctions 33 (Lancaster) and 32 (Preston) of the M6.

If travelling from the north, turn left off the A6 onto the B6430 signposted Garstang and continue through the town centre. Best Western Garstang Country Hotel is one mile south of the village.

If approaching from the south, pass through Broughton, Barton and Bilsborrow and take the first right after the Shell garage.

Look out for the brown tourist attraction sign on the A6.
